ERIE AND KALAMAZOO RAILROAD BANK.—A day or two ago the Milwaukee papers contained a telegraphic despatch from John Thompson, the New York broker, discrediting the bills of the Erie and Kalamazoo Railroad bank. We did not notice it then because it seemed to be one of the periodical efforts to injure the bank, which have thus far done it no harm, or was one of the unaccountable freaks of Thompson. Yes day, however, the Sentinel published the following despatch:

ERIE AND KALAMAZOO BANK.—Mr. Bell, president of the Exchange bank, received yesterday the following despatch from Mr. Lee, president of the Erie and Kalamazoo bank at Adrian:

To Wm. J. Bell, pres't.—All right here—cannot account for Thompson's movement.

Noah Lee, pres't.

The Wisconsin, of Wednesday afternoon, also contained the following:

THE ERIE AND KALAMAZOO BANK.—Though the N. Y. brokers have thrown out the Erie and Kalamazoo bills, despatch appears in the Chicago Press to the following effect:

Adrian, Aug. 21st.
There is not a shadow of truth in the report. The Erie and Kalamazoo Railroad bank is sound.

The Saratoga (N. Y.) convention adjourned to Auburn, "charged with the duty of presenting candidates for state officers, to be supported at the coming election." The convention does not assemble until after the conventions of other parties have met, and the duty of "presenting" candidates does not preclude it from adopting a part or the whole of any other ticket then in nomination.

WANT OF FREIGHT CARS.—We hear already complains of a want of freight cars on the Milwaukee road, and that buyers in this city have suffered loss from the inability to get their grain to the lake shore. If there is a want of facilities of transport thus early in the season, we fear the evil will be greatly aggravated before the season closes.

Ticonderoga—Past and Present

NEW YORK CITY, August 17th, 1854.
The mountain-side, the plain, the wood profound ;
All the wide earth—the fertile and the fair—
Is one vast burial ground !

These were, but they are not,
Sun red and set, and earth put on her bloom,
Whilst man, subliming to the common lot,
Went down into the tomb.

Two weeks ago, this day, I stood for the first time in my life in the ancient graveyard of old Fort Ticonderoga. Here and there in quite regular order could be traced the narrow hollows, made by the earth caving in, and filling the space once occupied by the mortal remains of some poor soldier. Here and there, in rows almost hid by the grass, could be seen the rude, unfinished and unlettered head and foot stones which once marked their resting place. Here at my feet is a vivid illustration of what Longfellow means, when he speaks of those who "softly lie and sweetly sleep."

"Low in the ground, the silent grave."

Indeed here one is alone with the dead of one hundred years ago. Hundreds, yes thousands, lie about this neglected graveyard; a few of whom died natural deaths, but the great majority came to their end in an untimely hour, in the unholy strife of battle,

"Amidst the din of arms, the yell
Of savage rage, the shriek of agony,
And groans of dying men around."

Now on this low mountain side, all that remains to show where once fierce conflict raged, is the rough gravestones and little hillocks of ground marking the graves; even the names of those who perished there are entirely forgotten—sic transit gloria mundi. Thus passes away the glory of the world; but "the dead are everywhere." Thus I moralized as I stood on death's great battle field of Ticonderoga; but my purpose was not so much to give you my moralizing as to tell your readers something of the past and present of this "first trophy in the war for independence." First then this Indian name signifies "noisy," doubtless because of the falls in the outlet of Lake George, for the waters of this lake are 230 feet higher than those of Lake Champlain, and the waters fall in fine cascades at the village of Tye, forming the upper and lower falls, both of which are used for water-powers, principally saw mills I should suppose. The name given originally by the aborigines to the falls, was afterwards given to the fortification 2 or 3 miles north, and now to a half-thriving, half-deserted looking village half way between Tye-landing on Lake George and the old fortifications on Lake Champlain. The peninsula on which the fort was situated, commanded in a military point of view, the passage of the whole of Lake Champlain north and south, as well as the land passage from Lake George to Lake Champlain. The French established themselves there about the year 1735; they commenced erecting military works, and in the course of a few years finished Fort Carillon, but on the 5th day of July, in the year 1758, the English, numbering 16,000 men, under General Abercrombie, embarked at Fort Wm. Henry in 900 batteaux and 135 boats, for the purpose of dispossessing the French at Ticonderoga. They landed very quietly and undisturbed, and advanced towards the French out-works, having several skirmishes with their enemies, in one of which Lord Howe was killed. The woods here are very thick and the English army became broken, and Gen. Abercrombie marched back again to where he had embarked in the morning, (now called Howe's landing.) The next morning, Gen. Abercrombie feeling extremely anxious to gain possession of the breastworks before the arrival of an expected reinforcement of 3000 men to the French, commenced operations on the French line of out-works which were protected by 6000 men. An immediate assault was made, and the fight lasted four hours, when the invincible English army was compelled to retreat with a loss of 2000 men and 2500 stand of arms. The French not even attempting to follow up their success by pursuit, or hanging on the retreating enemy's rear.

Strange to say, that the victorious party the next year abandoned this conspicuous post, without any show of fight, and the English, then under the command of Gen. Amherst, took possession of all the works, and immediately proceeded to repair and strengthen them. It is wonderful even at this day to see the number and extent of the numerous outworks, breastworks, excavations, &c., all over this peninsula.

These evidences of the past, plainly show how much money and labor must have been expended by the French and English on this military post.

From 1757 to 1775, the English held undisputed and almost unmolested possession of this fort and outworks. On the morning of the 10th of May, 1775, there were but a handful of men left in the fort by the English because they did not expect any audacious yankee to be knocking at the gate for entrance. Yet on that morning, sturdy Allen with 83 good Green Mountain boys, surprised the garrison with the novel demand of its immediate surrender to him "in the name of the great Jehovah and the continental congress;" and the worst part of the affair to them was, that they had to give it up into Ethan's hands and march the "quick step." The Americans held possession of Fort Tye and also Mount Independence opposite, until Gen. Burgoyne advanced through the lake in 1777, when it was found that Mount Defiance, just across the outlet of Lake George about one mile south-west of the fort, commanded all the American works, being 80 feet above them. Gen. Burgoyne took possession of this hitherto considered inaccessible mountain, on the 5th of July, and immediately commenced erecting outworks and a battery. Gen. St. Clair called a council of his officers and it was agreed to abandon the post at Ticonderoga and the opposite works on Mount Independence, then connected together by a floating bridge one-fourth of a mile long and 12 feet wide, and retreat south, and the next morning, after holding the post two years and two months, the Americans left and the English took possession and held it until the declaration of peace in 1783.

Such is a brief and imperfect account of Ticonderoga—PAST. Another paper must contain its Present features.

Truly your friend,
AN OLD SUBSCRIBER.

REGENERATION.

God has seen fit, in the third chapter of St. John's gospel, to inform us that there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews, and that he came to Jesus, and that he came by night, and it appears that he came on a very important errand, for he said to him: "Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God, for no man can do these miracles that thou doest except God be with him." It must be that Nicodemus was a regenerated man or drawn by the Father, or he could not have come to Christ. But he did come, and God has promised to raise him up at the last day; John 6: 44. "No man can come to me except the Father which has sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day." It says he did come, and came by night, (here I would ask the regenerated person, if he ever in his life saw a darker night or time than it was when he was willing to come, or bow, or give up to Christ,) and said unto him: "Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God, for no man can do these miracles that thou doest except God be with him. Now he must have been taught by the spirit or had a spiritual mind or he could not have discovered these things, because the carnal mind is at enmity against God, for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can it."—Romans 8: 7. The law says, "Come unto me all the ends of the earth," and Nicodemus did come unto Jesus, and it is evident he was taught by the spirit. If so he must had the spirit of grace implanted or regenerated and converted into the spirit so far as to discern these things. Christ has said that "Ye which have followed me in the regeneration, when the son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel."—Math. 19: 28—and confirmed it by a verily, and then goes on to enumerate what they have forsaken for his namesake, and they shall receive an hundred fold and shall inherit everlasting life. Verse 30 says: "But many that are first shall be last, and the last shall be first." We frequently see this verified. Now the question is, how was Christ regenerated, and must we follow him in the regeneration? 1st. Christ was regenerated by being conceived of the virgin Mary, and it was of the Holy Ghost.—Math. 1: 20.—and secondly, we must conceive or receive the spirit of grace, and it must be by the Holy Ghost; this makes the children of men heirs of God and joint heirs with Jesus Christ. Now I understand that it is regeneration which is the gift of the Holy Ghost that entitles the children of men to the foregoing promises and eternal life, or the blessings of God and spiritual birth, for those that are born of God cannot sin. The reason is "Because they are born of God."—1st John, 3: 9. and 5: 18. St. John, 3: 3. "Jesus replied to Nicodemus verily, verily I say unto thee, except a man be born again he cannot see the kingdom of God,"—as much as if he had said to him, there is a natural and a spiritual birth, or the man that is born of the flesh is a natural man, and cannot discern the things of the spirit, but he must be born of the spirit or he cannot see the kingdom of God, or much more inherit it. Verse 4, Nicodemus replied to him, how can these things be? It appears as though he thought there must be a similar process of the second birth as of the first, but could not see how it could be. 5th verse: "Jesus answered, verily, verily I say unto thee, except a man be born of water and of the spirit he cannot enter into the kingdom of God." 6th verse he says: "That which is born of the flesh is flesh, (no doubt referring to the water in the 5th verse,) and that which is born of the spirit is spirit."—7th verse: "Marvel not that I said unto thee ye must be born again." Now it is evident that Nicodemus was regenerated, and Christ tells him he must be born again. If regeneration is, or was the new birth, how did Christ come to tell him he must be born again. 8th verse, he says: "The wind bloweth where it listeth and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh nor whether it goeth, so is every one that is born of the spirit." We discover the effects of the wind as it passeth by, but when it is gone we see nor hear no more of it. So it is with the regenerated man. You see him as he goes through the world, but when he is gone you hear no more of him because he has gone to the world of spirits. Then he cannot sin any more, for the seed remaineth in him and he cannot sin; and the reason is, because he is born of God. But it was a mystery to Nicodemus, and it is to most every regenerated person. The seed of grace is implanted in them. The eyes of their understanding are enlightened and they discover the wickedness of their hearts, and they are led to enquire, how can these things be? But they are led by the spirit through life till the day of their probation is ended, or that leaven of the grace of God that was or is implanted in them by the Holy Ghost or the leaven in the meal, till it is all leavened and their old nature is subdued.

Probably the forthcoming democratic conventions may re-adopt their resolutions of 1849, which they have ever since repudiated until now. It will be a quick and easy work to read and adopt them—policy requires their adoption, but who believes there won't be a most brilliant explosion after all!

The anti-Nebraska or republican party of the country is without stratagem; motive it has plenarily, even to running over. It is youthful and less artful; what it does is of the heart, so there is enthusiasm. In power it will be adequate for splendid results.—Grant County Herald.

ANOTHER EXHIBITION.—The "wild mare of the desert," an animal without hair, will be exhibited to-day and to-morrow in the brick corner opposite the American. The Rockford Democrat says of it—"Without any mistake, she is the greatest curiosity of the animal kind we have ever looked upon. She is 15 hands high, —a most beautiful and faultless figure—and has not a hair on her. Such as have not seen her ladyship, "Josephine," may be assured it will pay in both time and money to go and see her.

REPUBLICANISM IN OHIO.—The republicans of Ohio are going to work in earnest. It is understood that Thomas Corwin, Thomas Ewing, senators Chase and Wade, Judge Spaulding, Col. D. K. Carter, the Hon. Joseph Cable, Col. B. F. Lintner, the Hon's. Joseph Root Giddings, Wade, Crowell, Campbell, Sapp, Stanton, Hunter, Townsend, Tilden, Stone, Brinkerhoff, Mathewson, John Woods, judge Proboscis, Sam'l Galloway, Hiram Griswold, John C. Vaughan, John A. Bingham, Chas. Anderson, Wm. Holman, Horace Dunbar, Gen. Eckley, Capt. Ford, J. R. Vance, Wm. Denison, J. Medill, John C. Tidball, Judge Cowen, M. B. Walker, of Dayton, Gen. Geiger, John F. Beaver, A. Hartan, J. W. Andrews, Bushnell White, several German orators, and other eloquent champions of free principles will take the stump this fall. With such a force as this laboring for the cause of freedom, Ohio may be set down as safe at the coming election.

A SUCCESSFUL CURE.—A letter written from the wreck of the steamer Franklin below New York, says:

Two of the hands employed in diving for the cargo, were attacked with cholera—one man of Herculean frame. While I was there, his moans, when doubled up and his feet contracted by the cramp, were horrible. In both cases Capt. J. C. Cowen, the agent of the underwriters, gave the following: 1 tablespoon of salt, 1 teaspoonful of cayenne pepper, half a pint of hot water. The man I saw, was as bad as he could be. We put his legs in a strong mustard bath, gave him the above, and in two hours he was easy and ready to go to work.

FLAX.—It is a curious contrast, says an Irish paper, that while British India is exporting £300,000 worth of flaxseed, and throwing away £500,000 of fibre; on the other, Ireland is raising to the value of flax fibre, and rotting in the steep-pools £500,000 worth of seed! It is Russia alone that has been benefitted by the ignorance of the Hindoo rrot and the prejudices and carelessness of the Irish. No particle of the valuable plant is allowed by her nobles to go to waste. She sells us to the value of £3,000,000 of fibre, and £900,000 of seed each year, and does not even take our manufacturer in return. The Hindoo burns the fibre and the Ulsterman rots the seed, which turned into money, would buy our manufactured goods.

The sales of Col. Benton's works are expected to reach 100,000 copies. One agent sent from California for 1,000 copies. An Alabama agent averaged twenty subscriptions daily. Four agents in Missouri ordered 8,000 copies. Only 500 were sold in South Carolina.

ERIE AND KALAMAZOO RAILROAD BANK.—A day or two ago the Milwaukee papers contained a telegraphic despatch from John Thompson, the New York broker, discrediting the bills of the Erie and Kalamazoo Railroad bank. We did not notice it then because it seemed to be one of the periodical efforts to injure the bank, which have thus far done it no harm, or was one of the unaccountable freaks of Thompson. Yes' day, however, the Sentinel published the following despatch:

ERIE AND KALAMAZOO BANK.—Mr. Bell, president of the Exchange bank, received yesterday the following despatch from Mr. Lee, president of the Erie and Kalamazoo bank at Adrian:

To Wm. J. Bell, pres't.—All right here—cannot account for Thompson's move.

NOAH LEE, pres't.

The Wisconsin, of Wednesday afternoon, also contained the following:

THE ERIE AND KALAMAZOO BANK.—Though the N. Y. brokers have thrown out the Erie and Kalamazoo bills, a despatch appears in the Chicago Press to the following effect:

Adrian, Aug. 21st.

There is not a shadow of truth in the report. The Erie and Kalamazoo railroad bank is sound.

THE Saratoga (N. Y.) convention adjourned to Auburn, "charged with the duty of presenting candidates for state officers, to be supported at the coming election." The convention does not assemble until after the conventions of other parties have met, and the duty of "presenting" candidates does not preclude it from adopting a part or the whole of any other ticket than in nomination.

WANT OF FREIGHT CARS.—We hear already complaints of a want of freight cars on the Milwaukee road, and that buyers in this city have suffered loss from the inability to get their grain to the lake shore. If there is a want of facilities of transport thus early in the season, we fear the evil will be greatly aggravated before the season closes.

Ticonderoga—Past and Present

NEW YORK CITY, August 17th, 1854.
"The dead are everywhere! The mountain-side, the plain, the wood profound; All the wide earth—the fertile and the fair— Is one vast burial ground!"

"These were, but they are not, Sun's rose and set, and earth put on her bloom, Whilst man, submitting to the common lot, Went down into the tomb."

Two weeks ago, this day, I stood for the first time in my life in the ancient graveyard of old Fort Ticonderoga. Here and there in quite regular order could be traced the narrow hollows, made by the earth caring in, and filling the space once occupied by the mortal remains of some poor soldier. Here and there, in rows almost hid by the grass, could be seen the rude, unfinished and unlettered head and foot stones which once marked their resting place. Here at my feet is a vivid illustration of what Longfellow means, when he speaks of those who "softly lie and sweetly sleep."

"Low in the ground, the silent grave." Indeed here one is alone with the dead of one hundred years ago. Hundreds, yes thousands, lie about this neglected graveyard; a few of whom died natural deaths, but the great majority came to their end in an untimely hour, in the unholy strife of battle,

"Amidst the din of arms, they fell Of savage rage, the shriek of agony, And groans of dying men around."

Now on this low mountain side, all that remains to show where once fierce conflict raged, is the rough gravestones and little hillocks of ground marking the graves; even the names of those who perished there are entirely forgotten—sic transit gloria mundi. Thus passes away the glory of the world; but "the dead are everywhere." Thus I moralized as I stood on death's great battle field of Ticonderoga; but my purpose was not so much to give you my moralizing as to tell you readers something of the past and present of this "first trophy in the war for independence." First then this Indian name signifies "noisy," doubtless because of the falls in the out of Lake George, for the waters of this lake are 230 feet higher than those of Lake Champlain, and the waters fall in fine cascades at the village of Tye, forming the upper and lower falls, both of which are used for water-powers, principally saw mills I should suppose. The name given originally by the aborigines to the falling waters, was afterwards given to the fortification 2 or 3 miles north, and now to a half-shriving, half-deserted looking village half way between Tye-landing on Lake George and the old fortifications on Lake Champlain. The peninsula on which the fort was situated, commanded in a military point of view, the passage of the whole of Lake Champlain north and south, as well as the land passage from Lake George to Lake Champlain. The French established themselves there about the year 1735; they commenced erecting military works, and in the course of a few years finished Fort Carillon, but on the 5th day of July, in the year 1758, the English, numbering 16,000 men, under General Abercrombie, embarked at Fort Wm. Henry in 900 batteaux and 135 boats, for the purpose of dispossessing the French at Ticonderoga. They landed very quietly and undisturbed, and advanced towards the French out-works, having several skirmishes with their enemies, in one of which Lord Howe was killed. The woods here are very thick and the English army became broken, and Gen. Abercrombie marched back again to where he had embarked in the morning, (now called Howe's landing.) The next morning, Gen. Abercrombie feeling extremely anxious to gain possession of the breastworks before the arrival of an expected reinforcement of 3000 men to the French, commenced operations on the French line of out-works which were protected by 6000 men. An immediate assault was made, and the fight lasted four hours, when the invincible English army was compelled to retreat with a loss of 2000 men and 2500 stand of arms. The French not even attempting to follow up their success by pursuit, or hanging on the retreating enemy's rear.

Strange to say, that the victorious party the next year abandoned this conspicuous post, without any show of fight, and the English, then under the command of Gen. Amherst, took possession of all the works, and immediately proceeded to repair and strengthen them. It is wonderful even at this day to see the number and extent of the numerous outworks, breastworks, excavations, &c., all over this peninsula. These evidences of the past, plainly show how much money and labor must have been expended by the French and English on this military post.

Every elector who desires a true man to represent this District in the National Legislature, should feel an interest in promoting a full attendance at the Mass Conventions and in securing a full representation from his district in the Congressional Convention.

ERIE AND KALAMAZOO RAILROAD BANK.—A day or two ago the Milwaukee papers contained a telegraphic despatch from John Thompson, the New York broker, discrediting the bills of the Erie and Kalamazoo Railroad bank. We did not notice it then because it seemed to be one of the periodical efforts to injure the bank, which have thus far done it no harm, or was one of the unaccountable freaks of Thompson. Yes' day, however, the Sentinel published the following despatch:

ERIE AND KALAMAZOO BANK.—Mr. Bell, president of the Exchange bank, received yesterday the following despatch from Mr. Lee, president of the Erie and Kalamazoo bank at Adrian:

To Wm. J. Bell, pres't.—All right here—cannot account for Thompson's move.

NOAH LEE, pres't.

The Wisconsin, of Wednesday afternoon, also contained the following:

THE ERIE AND KALAMAZOO BANK.—Though the N. Y. brokers have thrown out the Erie and Kalamazoo bills, a despatch appears in the Chicago Press to the following effect:

Adrian, Aug. 21st.

There is not a shadow of truth in the report. The Erie and Kalamazoo railroad bank is sound.

THE Saratoga (N. Y.) convention adjourned to Auburn, "charged with the duty of presenting candidates for state officers, to be supported at the coming election." The convention does not assemble until after the conventions of other parties have met, and the duty of "presenting" candidates does not preclude it from adopting a part or the whole of any other ticket than in nomination.

WANT OF FREIGHT CARS.—We hear already complaints of a want of freight cars on the Milwaukee road, and that buyers in this city have suffered loss from the inability to get their grain to the lake shore. If there is a want of facilities of transport thus early in the season, we fear the evil will be greatly aggravated before the season closes.

site works on Mount Independence, then connected together by a floating bridge one-fourth of a mile long and 12 feet wide, and retreat south, and the next morning, after holding the post two years and two months, the Americans left and the English took possession and held it until the declaration of peace in 1763.

Such is a brief and imperfect account of Ticonderoga—Past. Another paper must contain its Present features.

Truly your friend,

REGENERATION.

God has seen fit, in the third chapter of St. John's gospel, to inform us that there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews, and that he came to Jesus, and that he came by night, and it appears that he came on a very important errand, for he said to him: "Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God, for no man can do these miracles that thou doest except God be with him." It must be that Nicodemus was a regenerated man or drawn by the Father, or he could not have come to Christ. But he did come, and God has promised to raise him up at the last day; John 6: 44. "No man can come to me except the Father which has sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day." It says he did come, and came by night, (here I would ask the regenerated person, if he ever in his life saw a darker night or time than it was when he was willing to come, or bow, or give up to Christ,) and said unto him: "Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God, for no man can do these miracles that thou doest except God be with him." Now he must have been taught by the spirit or had a spiritual mind or he could not have discovered these things, because the carnal mind is at enmity against God, "for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be."—Romans 8: 7. The law says, "Come unto me all the ends of the earth," and Nicodemus did come unto Jesus, and it is evident he was taught by the spirit. If so he must have the spirit of grace implanted or regenerated and converted into the spirit so far as to discern these things. Christ has said that "Ye which have followed me in the regeneration, when the son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel."—Math. 19: 28 and confirmed it by a verily, and then goes on to enumerate what they have forsaken for his namesake, and they shall receive an hundred fold and shall inherit everlasting life. Verse 30 says: "But many that are first shall be last, and the last shall be first." We frequently see this verified. Now the question is, how was Christ regenerated, and must we follow him in the regeneration? 1st. Christ was regenerated by being conceived of the virgin Mary, and it was of the Holy Ghost.—Math. 1: 20.—and secondly, we must conceive or receive the spirit of grace, and it must be by the Holy Ghost; this makes the children of men heirs of God and joint heirs with Jesus Christ. Now I understand that it is regeneration which is the gift of the Holy Ghost that entitles the children of men to the foregoing promises and eternal life, or the blessings of God and spiritual birth, for those that are born of God cannot sin. The reason is "Because they are born of God."—1st John, 3: 9. and 5: 18. St. John, 3: 8. "Jesus replied to Nicodemus verily, verily I say unto thee, except a man be born again he cannot see the kingdom of God,"—as much as if he had said to him, there is a natural and a spiritual birth, or the man that is born of the flesh is a natural man, and cannot discern the things of the spirit, but he must be born of the spirit or he cannot see the kingdom of God, or much more inherit it. Verse 4, Nicodemus replied to him, how can these things be? It appears as though he thought there must be a similar process of the second birth as of the first, but could not see how it could be. 5th verse: "Jesus answered, verily, verily I say unto thee, except a man be born of water and of the spirit he cannot enter into the kingdom of God." 6th verse he says: "That which is born of the flesh is flesh, (no doubt referring to the water in the 5th verse,) and that which is born of the spirit is spirit." 7th verse: "Marvel not that I said unto thee ye must be born again." Now it is evident that Nicodemus was regenerated, and Christ tells him he must be born again. If regeneration is, or was the new birth, how did Christ come to tell him he must be born again. 8th verse, he says: "The wind bloweth where it listeth and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh nor whether it goeth, so is every one that is born of the spirit." We discover the effects of the wind as it passeth by, but when it is gone we see nor hear no more of it. So it is with the regenerated man. You see him as he goes through the world, but when he is gone you hear no more of him because he has gone to the world of spirits. Then he cannot sin any more, for the seed remaineth in him and he cannot sin; and the reason is, because he is born of God. But it was a mystery to Nicodemus, and it is to most every regenerated person. The seed of grace is implanted in them. The eyes of their understanding are enlightened and they discover the wickedness of their hearts, and they are led to enquire, how can these things be? But they are led by the spirit through life till the day of their probation is ended, or that leaven of the grace of God that was or is implanted in them by the Holy Ghost or the leaven in the meal, till it is all leavened and their old nature is subdued.

As there is much said of the translation of our version of the bible, I have taken considerable pains, where I could find those that had the original and understood it and ours, and they have agreed on those passages that I am going to quote: 1st. This passage and the original agree—St. John 1st chap., 13th verse. This passage refers in Greek to 1st of John, 5th chap. and 6th verse, which no doubt is Christ, and the 5th chap. 1st verse read thus: "Whosoever believeth that Jesus Christ is of God, 4th verse: For whosoever is of God overcometh the world; and 4th chap., 7th verse: Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God, for every one that loves is of God, and every one that loveth is of God and knoweth God. The 3d chap. and 9th verse of the first general epistle of John read the same as ours, and so does the 5th chap. 18th verse. So I am informed by good authority, and if that is the case, that whosoever is born of God cannot sin, where is that now-born man? I do not wish to cavil with the scriptures, and say as some do, that it is the spirit of grace that is implanted in us in regeneration that is born again, for God has said, I have begotten you through the gospel, which no doubt means regeneration.—1st Corinthians, 4: 15, and 1st Peter, 1: 3. There he says he has begotten us to a lively hope. Now if regeneration is the new or spiritual birth, and we cannot sin, what are we hoping for?—what a man has how can he hope for it. Christ has taken about thirty natural things, such as the leaven, the mustard seed, etc., to compare or illustrate spiritual things. Some he says is like, and some are like unto the kingdom of heaven, but J. D. W. says that natural things will not compare with spiritual things. Christ said it did, and the Holy Ghost has inspired it to be written for our instruction. And now, I ask, is not this a sin against the Holy Ghost, or the unpardonable sin. I wish this examined. DAVID DOUGLASS. Plymouth, Aug. 10, 1853.

FLAX.—It is a curious contrast, says an Irish paper, that while British India is exporting £300,000 worth of flaxseed, and throwing away £500,000 of fibre; on the other, Ireland is raising to the value of flax fibre, and rotting in the steep-pools £500,000 worth of seed! It is Russia alone that has been benefitted by the ignorance of the Hindoo ryst and the prejudices and carelessness of the Irish. No particle of the valuable plant is allowed by her nobles to go to waste. She sells us to the value of £3,000,000 of fibre, and £900,000 of seed each year, and does not even take our manufactures in return. The Hindoo burns the fibre and the Ulsterman rots the seed, which turned into money, would buy our manufactured goods.

The sales of Col. Bunting's works are expect- to reach 100,000 copies. One agent sent from California for 1,000 copies. An Alabama agent averaged twenty subscriptions daily. Four agents in Missouri ordered 8,000 copies. Only 500 were sold in South Carolina.

ERIE AND KALAMAZOO RAILROAD BANK.—A day or two ago the Milwaukee papers contained a telegraphic despatch from John Thompson, the New York broker, discrediting the bills of the Erie and Kalamazoo Railroad bank. We did not notice it then because it seemed to be one of the periodical efforts to injure the bank, which have thus far done it no harm, or was one of the unaccountable freaks of Thompson. Yesterday, however, the Sentinel published the following despatch:

ERIE AND KALAMAZOO BANK.—Mr. Bell, president of the Exchange bank, received yesterday the following despatch from Mr. Lee, president of the Erie and Kalamazoo bank at Adrian:

To Wm. J. Bell, pres't.—All right here—cannot account for Thompson's movement.

NOAH LEE, pres't.

The Wisconsin, of Wednesday afternoon, also contained the following:

THE ERIE AND KALAMAZOO BANK.—Though the N. Y. brokers have thrown out the Erie and Kalamazoo bills, a despatch appears in the Chicago Press to the following effect:

Adrian, Aug. 21st.

There is not a shadow of truth in the report.

The Erie and Kalamazoo Railroad bank is sound.

The Saratoga (N. Y.) convention adjourned to Auburn, "charged with the duty of presenting candidates for state officers, to be supported at the coming election." The convention does not assemble until after the conventions of other parties have met, and the duty of "presenting" candidates does not preclude it from adopting a part or the whole of any other ticket then in nomination.

WANT OF FREIGHT CARS.—We hear already complaints of a want of freight cars on the Milwaukee road, and that buyers in this city have suffered loss from the inability to get their grain to the lake shore. If there is a want of facilities of transport thus early in the season, we fear the evil will be greatly aggravated before the season closes.

Ticonderoga—Past and Present.

NEW YORK CITY, August 17th, 1854.
The dead are everywhere!
The mountain-side, the plain, the wood profound;
All the wide earth—the fertile and the fat—
Is one vast burial ground!"

"These were, but they are not;
Suns rose and set, and earth put on her bloom,
Whilst man, submitting to the common lot,
Went down into the tomb."

Two weeks ago, this day, I stood for the first time in my life in the ancient graveyard of old Fort Ticonderoga. Here and there in quite regular order could be traced the narrow hollows, made by the earth caving in, and filling the space once occupied by the mortal remains of some poor soldier. Here and there, in rows almost hid by the grass, could be seen the rude, unfinished and unlettered head and foot stones which once marked their resting place. Here at my feet is a vivid illustration of what Longfellow means, when he speaks of those who "softly lie and sweetly sleep."

"Low in the ground, the silent grave."

Indeed here one is alone with the dead of one hundred years ago. Hundreds, yes thousands, lie about this neglected graveyard; a few of whom died natural deaths, but the great majority came to their end in an untimely hour, in the unhygienic strife of battle.

"Amidst the sin of arms, they fell
Of savage rage, the shriek of agony,
And groans of dying men around!"

Now on this low mountain side, all that remains to show where once fierce conflict raged, is the rough gravestones and little hillocks of ground marking the graves; even the names of those who perished there are entirely forgotten—sacra translati gloria mundi. Thus passes away the glory of the world; but the dead are everywhere." Thus I moralized as I stood on death's great battle field of Ticonderoga; but my purpose was not so much to give you my moralizing as to tell your readers something of the past and present of this "first trophy in the war for independence." First then this Indian name signifies "noisy," doubtless because of the falls in the outlet of Lake George, for the waters of this lake are 230 feet higher than those of Lake Champlain, and the waters fall in fine cascades at the village of Tye, forming the upper and lower falls, both of which are used for water-power, principally saw mills I should suppose. The name given originally by the aborigines to the falling waters, was afterwards given to the fortification 2 or 3 miles north, and now to a half-haiving, half-deserted looking village half way between Tye-landing on Lake George and the old fortifications on Lake Champlain. The peninsula on which the fort was situated, commanded in a military point of view, the passage of the whole of Lake Champlain north and south, as well as the land passage from Lake George to Lake Champlain. The French established themselves there about the year 1735; they commenced erecting military works, and in the course of a few years finished Fort Carillon, but on the 5th day of July, in the year 1758, the English, numbering 16,000 men, under General Abercrombie, embarked at Fort Win. Henry in 300 batteaux and 185 boats, for the purpose of dispossessing the French at Ticonderoga. They landed very quietly and undisturbed, and advanced towards the French out-works, having several skirmishes with their enemies, in one of which Lord Howe was killed. The woods here are very thick and the English army became broken, and Gen. Abercrombie marched back again to where he had embarked in the morning, (now called Howe's landing.) The next morning, Gen. Abercrombie feeling extremely anxious to gain possession of the breastworks before the arrival of an expected reinforcement of 3000 men to the French, commenced operations on the French line of out-works which were protected by 6000 men. An immediate assault was made, and the fight lasted four hours, when the invincible English army was compelled to retreat with a loss of 2000 men and 2500 stand of arms. The French not even attempting to follow up their success by pursuit, or hanging on the retreating enemy's rear.

Strange to say, that the victorious party the next year abandoned this conspicuous post, without any show of fight, and the English, then under the command of Gen. Amherst, took possession of all the works, and immediately proceeded to repair and strengthen them. It is wonderful even at this day to see the number and extent of the numerous outworks, breastworks, excavations, &c., all over this peninsula. These evidences of the past, plainly show how much money and labor must have been expended by the French and English on this military post.

From 1757 to 1775, the English held undisputed and almost unmolested possession of this fort and outworks. On the morning of the 10th of May, 1775, there were but a handful of men left in the fort by the English because they did not expect any audacious yankee to be knocking at the gate for entrance. Yet on that morning, sturdy Ethan Allen with 83 good Green Mountain boys, surprised the garrison with the novel demand of its immediate surrender to him "in the name of the great Jehovah and the continental congress;" and the worst part of the affair to them was, that they had to give it up to Ethan's hands and march the "quick step." The Americans held possession of Fort Tye and also Mount Independence opposite, in 1777, when it was found that Mount Defiance, just across the outlet of Lake George about one mile south-west of the fort, commanded all the American works, being 80 feet above them. Gen. Burgoyne took possession of this hitherto considered inaccessible mountain, on the 5th of July, and immediately commenced erecting outworks and a battery. Gen. St. Clair called a council of his officers and it was agreed to abandon the post at Ticonderoga and the opposites works on Mount Independence, then connected together by a floating bridge one-fourth of a mile long and 12 feet wide, and retreat south, and the next morning, after holding the post two years and two months, the Americans left and the English took possession and held it until the declaration of peace in 1783.

Such is a brief and imperfect account of Ticonderoga—Past. Another paper must contain its Present features.

Truly your friend,
AN OLD SUBSCRIBER.

REGENERATION.

God has seen fit, in the third chapter of St. John's gospel, to inform us that there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews, and that he came to Jesus, and that he came by night, and it appears that he came on a very important errand, for he said to him: "Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God, for no man can do these miracles that thou doest except God be with him." It must be that Nicodemus was a regenerated man or drawn by the Father, or he could not have come to Christ. But he did come, and God has promised to raise him up at the last day; John 6:44. "No man can come to me except the Father which has sent me draw him; and I will raise him up at the last day." It says he did come, and came by night, (here I would ask the regenerated person, if he ever in his life saw a darker night or time than it was when he was willing to come, or how, or give up to Christ,) and said unto him: "Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God, for no man can do these miracles that thou doest except God be with him. Now he must have been taught by the spirit or had a spiritual mind or he could not have discovered these things, because the carnal mind is at enmity against God, "for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be"—Romans, 8:7. The law says, "Come unto me all the ends of the earth," and Nicodemus did come unto Jesus, and it is evident he was taught by the spirit. If so he must had the spirit of grace implanted or regenerated and converted into the spirit so far as to discern these things. Christ has said that "Ye which have followed me in the regeneration, when the son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel."—Math. 19:28—and confirmed it by a verily, and then goes on to enumerate what they have forsaken for half-haiving, half-deserted looking village half way between Tye-landing on Lake George and the old fortifications on Lake Champlain. The peninsula on which the fort was situated, commanded in a military point of view, the passage of the whole of Lake Champlain north and south, as well as the land passage from Lake George to Lake Champlain. The French established themselves there about the year 1735; they commenced erecting military works, and in the course of a few years finished Fort Carillon, but on the 5th day of July, in the year 1758, the English, numbering 16,000 men, under General Abercrombie, embarked at Fort Win. An immediate assault was made, and the fight lasted four hours, when the invincible English army was compelled to retreat with a loss of 2000 men and 2500 stand of arms. The French not even attempting to follow up their success by pursuit, or hanging on the retreating enemy's rear.

Strange to say, that the victorious party the next year abandoned this conspicuous post, without any show of fight, and the English, then under the command of Gen. It is wonderful even at this day to see the number and extent of the numerous outworks, breastworks, excavations, &c., all over this peninsula. These evidences of the past, plainly show how much money and labor must have been expended by the French and English on this military post.

From 1757 to 1775, the English held undisputed and almost unmolested possession of this fort and outworks. On the morning of the 10th of May, 1775, there were but a handful of men left in the fort by the English because they did not expect any audacious yankee to be knocking at the gate for entrance. Yet on that morning, sturdy Ethan Allen with 83 good Green Mountain boys, surprised the garrison with the novel demand of its immediate surrender to him "in the name of the great Jehovah and the continental congress;" and the worst part of the affair to them was, that they had to give it up to Ethan's hands and march the "quick step." Gen. Burgoyne took possession of this hitherto considered inaccessible mountain, on the 5th of July, and immediately commenced erecting outworks and a battery. Gen. St. Clair called a council of his officers and it was agreed to abandon the post at Ticonderoga and the oppo-

and 6th verse, which no doubt is Christ, and the 6th chap. 1st verse read thus: Whosoever believeth that Jesus Christ is of God, 4th verse. For whosoever is of God overcometh the world; and 4th chap., 7th verse: Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God, for every one that loves is of God, and every one that loveth is of God and knoweth God. The 3d chap. and 9th verse of the first general epistle of John read the same as ours, and so does the 5th chap. 18th verse. So I am informed by good authority, and if that is the case, that whosoever is born of God cannot sin, where is that now-born man?

I do not wish to cavil with the scriptures, and say as some do, that it is the spirit of grace that is implanted in us in regeneration that is born again, for God has said, I have begotten you through the gospel, which no doubt means regeneration.—1st Corinthians, 4:15, and 1st Peter, 1:3. There he says he has begotten you unto a lively hope. Now if regeneration is the new or spiritual birth, and we cannot sin, what are we hoping for?—what a man has how can he hope for it. Christ has taken about thirty natural things, such as the leaven, the mustard seed, etc., to compare or illustrate spiritual things. Some he says is like, and some are like unto the kingdom of heaven, but J. D. W.

says that natural things will not compare with spiritual things. Christ said it did, and the Holy Ghost has inspired it to be written for our instruction. And now, I ask, is not this a sin against the Holy Ghost, or the unpardonable sin. I wish this examined. DAVID DOUGLASS.

ANOTHER EXHIBITION.—The "wild mare of the desert," an animal without hair, will be exhibited to-day and to-morrow in the brick corner opposite the American. The Rockford Democrat says of it—"Without any mistake, she is the greatest curiosity of the animal kind we have ever looked upon. She is 15 hands high, —a most beautiful and faultless figure—and has not a hair on her. Such as have not seen her ladyship, "Josephine," may be assured it will wag in both time and money to go and see her.

REPUBLICANISM IN OHIO.—The republicans of Ohio are going to work in earnest. It is understood that Thomas Corwin, Thomas Ewing, senators Chase and Wade, Judge Spaulding, Col. D. K. Carter, the Hon. Joseph Caile, Col. B. F. Linnens, the Hon. Joseph Root Gildings, Wade, Crowell, Campbell, Sampson, Stanton, Hunter, Townsend, Tilden, Stone, Brinkerhoff, Matthews, John Woods, judge Proboscis, Sam'l Galloway, Hiram Griswold, John C. Vaughan, John A. Bingham, Chas. Anderson, Wm. H. Melchior, Horace Dunbar, Gen. Eckley, Capt. Ford, J. R. Vance, Wm. Dennison, J. Medill, John C. Tidball, Judge Cowen, M. B. Walker, of Dayton, Gen. Geiger, John F. Boarer, A. Harlan, J. W. Andrews, Bushnell White, several German orators, and other eloquent champions of free principles, will take the stump this fall. With such a force as this laboring for the cause of freedom, Ohio may be set down as safe at the coming election.

A SUCCESSFUL CURE.—A letter written from the wreck of the steamer Franklin below New York, says:

Two of the hands employed in diving for the cargo, were attacked with cholera—one a man of Herculean frame. While I was there, his means, when doubled up and his feet contracted by the cramp, were horrible. In both cases Capt. J. Q. Cowne, the agent of the underwriters, gave the following: 1 tablespoon of salt, 1 teaspoonful of cayenne pepper, half a pint of hot water. The man I saw, was as bad as he could be. We put his legs in a strong mustard bath, gave him the above, and in two hours he was easy and ready to go to work.

FLAX.—It is a curious contrast, says an Irish paper, that while British India is exporting £300,000 worth of flaxseed, and throwing away £500,000 of fibre; on the other, Ireland is raising to the value of flax fibre, and rotting in the steep-pools £500,000 worth of seed! It is Russia alone that has been benefitted by the ignorance of the Hindoo ryot and the prejudices and carelessness of the Irish. No nobles of the valuable plant is allowed by her nobles to go to waste. She sells us to the value of £2,000,000 of fibre, and £900,000 of seed each year, and does not even take our manufactures in return. The Hindoo burns the fibre and the Ulsterman rots the seed, which turned into money, would buy our manufactured goods.

The sales of Col. Benton's works are expected to reach 100,000 copies. One agent sent from California for 1,000 copies. An Alabama agent averaged twenty subscriptions daily. Four agents in Missouri ordered 8,000 copies. Only 500 were sold in South Carolina.

It prevents the food of infants turning sour, and in all cases acts as a pleasing aperient peculiarly adapted for females. For sale by FARWELL & BRO.

We shall reserve ONLY ONE COLUMN OF ADVERTISING for the purpose of publishing an occasional prospectus in addition to our own, leaving THIRTY-ONE COLUMNS OF READING MATTER.

One or two good stories will appear in each No. but none except those having a directly moral and beneficial tendency will be admitted into its columns.

A short summary of passing events will be given; but no political ground will be taken. As a better idea may be formed by seeing the article itself, the first No. will be furnished to all who may wish to examine it, FREE OF CHARGE.

The terms of "The Wisconsin Home" will be ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR, payable half yearly in advance. Subscription books now open.

Orders solicited early, especially for sample numbers, in order that we may know how large an edition will supply the demand.

ANOTHER EXHIBITION.—The "wild mare of the desert," an animal without hair, will be exhibited to-day and to-morrow in the brick corner opposite the American. The Rockford Democrat says of it—"Without any mistake, she is the greatest curiosity of the animal kind we have ever looked upon. She is 16 hands high, a most beautiful and faultless figure—and has not a hair on her. Such as have not seen her ladyship, "Josephine," may be assured it will pay in both time and money to go and see her.

REPUBLICANISM IN OHIO.—The republicans of Ohio are going to work in earnest. It is understood that Thomas Corwin, Thomas Ewing, senators Chase and Wade, Judge Spaulding, Col. D. K. Carter, the Hon. Joseph Cable, Col. B. F. Lintner, the Hon. Joseph Root Giddings, Wade, Crowell, Campbell, Sapp, Stanton, Hunter, Townsend, Tilden, Stone, Brinkerhoff, Mathews, John Woods, judge Proboscis, Sam'l Galloway, Hiram Griswold, John C. Vaughan, John A. Bigham, Chas. Anderson, Wm. Helmich, Horace Dunbar, Gen. Eckley, Capt. Ford, J. R. Vanen, Wm. Dennison, J. Meull, John C. Tidball, Judge Cowen, M. B. Walker, of Dayton, Gen. Geiger, John F. Benner, A. Harlan, J. W. Andrews, Bushnell White, several German orators, and other eloquent champions of free principles, will take the stump this fall. With such a force as this laboring for the cause of freedom, Ohio may be set down as safe at the coming election.

A SUCCESSFUL CURE.—A letter written from the wreck of the steamer Franklin below New York, says:

Two of the hands employed in diving for the cargo, were attacked with cholera—one man of herculean frame. While I was there, his moans, when doubled up and his feet contracted by the cramp, were horrible. In both cases Capt. J. Q. Cowne, the agent of the underwriters, gave the following: 1 tablespoon of salt, 1 teaspoonful of cayenne pepper, half a pint of hot water. The man I saw, was as bad as he could be. We put his legs in a strong mustard bath, gave him the above, and in two hours he was easy and ready to go to work.

FLAX.—It is a curious contrast, says an Irish paper, that while British India is exporting £300,000 worth of flaxseed, and throwing away £500,000 of fibre; on the other, Ireland is raising to the value of flax fibre, and rotting in the steep-pools £500,000 worth of seed! It is Russia alone that has been benefited by the ignorance of the Hindoo rrot and the prejudices and carelessness of the Irish. No particle of the valuable plant is allowed by her nobles to go to waste. She sells us to the value of £2,000,000 of fibre, and £200,000 of seed each year, and does not even take our manufactures in return. The Hindoo burns the fibre and the Ulsterman rots the seed, which turned into money, would buy our manufactured goods.

The sales of Col. Benton's works are expected to reach 100,000 copies. One agent sent from California for 10,000 copies. An Alabama agent averaged twenty subscriptions daily. Four agents in Missouri ordered 8,000 copies. Only 500 were sold in South Carolina.

TUBE PAINTS, Pallet Boards, Brushes &c., a full assortment for artist's use, kept constantly on hand, at FARWELL & BRO'S. Drug Store.

RUSHTON & CLARK'S COD LIVER OIL, warranted pure, and from fresh Rivers. One gross just received at FARWELL & BRO'S.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT, one gross 25 ct. 50 ct. and $1.00 bottle, just received and for sale by FARWELL & BRO.

MURRY'S FLUID MAGNESIA, a mild, safe and elegant anti-itch ointment, possessing all the properties of the magnesia, in general use, and effectually cures heart-burn without injuring the coats of the stomach. It prevents the food of infants turning soured, and in all cases acts as a pleasant ointment peculiarly adapted for females. For sale by FARWELL & BRO.

John Kenyon
WISHING to reduce his stock of goods as low as possible, before bringing on a GENERAL ASSORTMENT OF NEW FALL GOODS, has concluded to sell them at prices very little above cost. Boots and Shoes cheaper than ever. Please call and examine before purchasing elsewhere. JOHN KENYON. Janesville, Aug. 18, 1854.
